

Most of our meetings and workshops will take place at the Sedona Arts Center who are working with us to provide a wonderful creative environment. Great synergy for 2 great organizations. Did you know nationally recognized weaver and teacher Anita Mayer took her first weaving class at the Sedona Arts Center from guild founder Mary Pendleton! True story.

September 16, 2021 9:30-11:30 (SAC SEG 1/2 day room fee)

Program: Julie Richard, SAC executive director, who will share her plans and exciting vision for the arts in Sedona and SAC's role

October 1, 7th Annual WEAVERS GUILD FIBER SALE (Sedona United Methodist Church)

The sale is back after taking off last year due to COVID and we are ready to kick off the fall with our "Fabulous Fiber Sale" with our members' beautiful one-of-a-kind art creations of handwoven, handmade fiber art which includes garments, baskets, scarves, ornaments and much more.

The "Fabulous Fiber Sale 2021" opens October 1 at 10:00 a.m. and run through October 2th. The hours are 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m on Friday, Oct. 1, and Saturday, October 2nd, the hours are 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Please note that it is only two days so be sure to put the dates on your calendars. The set up for the sale will be Thursday, September 30th at 1p.m. – 4p.m. The sale will again be at the Sedona United Methodist Church located at 110 Indian Cliffs Rd. and Highway 179. COVID protocols will be in place for everyone's safety.

As a member, there are two ways you can participate. First would be as a member selling your fiber art. All you would need to do is register and send the form to the Treasurer along with the $20 fee. There are guidelines to help you understand what is expected. The second is to volunteer as a demonstrating artist or sign up as a volunteer and you will be assigned something to do whether during set up or during the sale.

If you have any questions, email (verdevalleyweaversguild@gmail.com) or call (928-284-1375) Shirley Eichten Albrecht, Chairperson, and she would be more than happy to answer your questions.

Remember, a portion of each sale benefits the Guild.

October 14, 2021 9:30 program and workshop to follow (SAC SEG 1 full day PC)

Program: Cass Schorsch

Workshop: Making a shawl pin. A cabachon will be mounted on leather with beading around the edge. Using silk, embroidery thread, yarn, or waxed linen, you will learn coiled wrapping. Cost: $75/person includes all materials. workshop, full day dyeing workshop

November 18, 2021 9:30 program, 1/2 day spinning workshop (SAC SEG 2 full day, PC)

Program: Peggy Dooney of 100th Sheep Co. "A Dyer's Unexpected Journey (The Accidental Dyer). Please join me on a journey that had curiosity firmly in the driver's seat! Did you know that inspiration is everywhere? Happy accidents can teach you a lot even if they aren't aligned with goals you've set for learning. I never DREAMED when I began my first triad studies that I would be teaching, selling, and dyeing for other fiber artists and Treenway Silks. Welcome to my world of colorful adventures"

Workshop: Mud Is For Pies Not Yarn:(1/2 day Spinning SAC). Like a moth to the light we were drawn to the kaleidoscope. Don't get burned when spinning only to have your dancing colors bog down into hohum. We'll explore several ways to preserve those lusciously colored rovings that we've all purchased instead of losing their lovely distinctiveness. Cost: $75/person

Workshop: Dyeing Yarn and Roving (1 full day SAC) I Hate Color Theory: When you read the words "analogous" or "split complementary." do you hear Charlie Brown's teacher saying, "Wah, wah, wah, wah, waaaah?" Why not really learn how colors work together to create beautiful combinations by

DYEING yarn! This workshop is open to all levels of color-intimidation and you'll go home with six ounce skeins of superwash Merino, notes, labeled tags, and a color wheel of your very own. $140/person

December 16, 2021 9:30 tour of Rainbow Acres and holiday lunch (Rainbow Acres Ranch, Cottonwood)

Weaving Studio: Ranchers use professional-quality, manually-operated looms to turn fabric, yarn and trim into beautiful woven rugs, placemats, wall hangings, scarves, shawls and more. Rainbow Acres has 12 looms, including a floor loom that can be operated while standing and hand looms for those unable to use foot pedals. The Verde Valley Weaving Guild serves as volunteers to help the Ranchers learn new designs.

January 20, 2022 9:30 program, 1 1/2 day rigid headle workshop (Sheri Colman's VOC home)

Program: Nancy Wilson and Stretch Challenge Update

Workshop: Nancy Wilson will guide us through warping and using our rigid headle looms. So take yours out of the closet, dust it off and get ready to create. $50/person

February 17, 2022 1/2 day program (SAC SEG 1/2 day room fee) TBD

March 17, 2022 Floranemez Felts (SAC SEG 3 full day PC)

Program: Flóra Carlile-Kovacs finds endless inspiration in nature and in the natural state of materials. Felt, as an expressive medium, is conducive to an instinctive and spontaneous creative process.

Workshop: 1/2 day felting workshop and full day felting workshop
Workshop: 1 day workshop

April 21, 2022 TBD (SAC SEG 1/2 day room rental fee)

May 19, 2022 9:30 program, 1 1/2 day basketweaving workshop (SAC North classroom 2 full day PC)

Program: Shirley Albrecht talks about her basket weaving career.

Workshop: 1 1/2 day, gourd dyeing and embellishment with custom weaving with various materials. Cost: $90/person plus $40 materials fee.

June 16, 2022. Program: Show and tell of guild challenge and year end gathering (SAC SEG 1/2 day room rental)